

No parent trial spans both age groups, so adjusting for cohort removes the aging signal

S9 Figure. Cohort structure and what adjusting for it costs. The four models as successive coarsenings of one partition (A), the proteins each finds per contrast (B), and the standard errors (C), fold-change agreement (D) and aging p-value distributions (E) behind those counts. Every design reaches full rank; the tables are in S10 Table.